

Business Incubator Center

JOB DESCRIPTION: Director, Grand Junction Small Business Development Center (GJ SBDC)

About the Colorado SBDC

The SBDC provides high-quality, one-on-one business consulting and affordable business training and programs. The Colorado SBDC Network consists of 15 full-time centers and more than 70 part-time satellite centers. The Grand Junction Small Business Development Center (SBDC) is one of the 15 full-time centers, it's an award-winning and nationally recognized SBDC program. Hosted by the Business Incubator Center, the Grand Junction SBDC is a central point for connecting resources of the governmental entities including federal and state with resources of private sectors and education. The mission of Grand Junction SBDC is to help small businesses start, grow, and prosper.

About the Business Incubator Center

The Business Incubator Center (BIC) is a 501(c)3 not-for profit Corporation founded in 1987. BIC is a key pillar of economic development in Mesa County and the surrounding region. BIC aims to diversify the economy through its nationally and internationally award winning programs that are geared towards fostering innovation and supporting entrepreneurs, start-ups, and small businesses. As an economic development organization our mission is to support the launch, growth, stabilization, and long-term success of business enterprises in Mesa County and the surrounding region. We measure our success by our ability to guide entrepreneurs through sound business decisions and our positive influence on economic growth in the region. In partnership with The Colorado Small Business Development Center (CSBDC), BIC has been the hub for the GJ SBDC since 1993. BIC operates out of a 46 acre industrial campus, with over 60,000 square feet of mixed use space available for lease to small business partners and clients of BIC. The campus includes a manufacturing center, an office and services center, a commercial kitchen, a public Makerspace, a technology center, a training and conference center, a satellite location in the city of Fruita and a coworking space. BIC is proud host of seven programs: the Business Loan Fund, the GJ Small Business Development Center (SBDC), the Mesa County Enterprise Zone, two world class incubator programs, the GJ MakerSpace, and F-works.

About the job

The SBDC Director provides leadership and oversight for the development, implementation, and operation of the Grand Junction Small Business Development Center (GJ SBDC). Together with your stakeholders, you drive success for entrepreneurs and small businesses in our region, help small businesses continue to stay relevant by adapting programs to the changing nature of the economy and the demographic profile of those in it, and give voice to the critical importance of Colorado's small businesses as job creators in the community.
